MYTH IN THE LANDSCAPE

BOUVERIE HALL, NORTH STREET, PEWSEY, SN9 5ES

SPEAKERS: Peter Dawkins, Angela Shaw, Isabelle Kingston, Peter Knight and Sue Wallace, Susan Raven, Andreas Kornevall, Sarah Dawkins, Andrew Clark.

SATURDAY 23rd NOVEMBER

MORNING PROGRAMME: 10am - 1pm

“The Great Myths and Landscape of Britain” - Peter Dawkins

All great myths are related to the landscape in which they are born and evolve as well as to the human beings who live in those landscapes. They are poetic and meaningful stories of who we were, are, and can be or will be, moulded by the landscape and its inherent intelligence and purpose. If we allow it the land can be our teacher, our friend and our partner in the great journey of life – and this is especially true of Britain, which is rich in myth.

“Tales of the White Horse” - Angela Shaw

Angela Shaw has built a relationship with the chalk white horse hill figures of Wiltshire and Uffington over the past 3 years through pilgrimage. She senses an embedded energetic network in the land connecting these iconic geoglyphs. Her holistic art practice brings people to the point of encounter to have their own experience of connection with these sacred sites. New stories may emerge from their archaic wisdom.

AFTERNOON PROGRAMME: 2.15 - 5pm

“Vale of Pewsey and Ancient History” - Isabelle Kingston

Memories and Magic reside in the land around Pewsey. Long ago, connecting with the Land and its energy for the benefit of the tribe was a matter of survival. The recognition of the individual energy of each place developed the creation of Sacred Sites which abound in Wiltshire. People travelled here from vast distances, having heard stories of their power and all they had to offer. We walk in the footsteps of those Ancestors.

“Albion Dreamtime” - Peter Knight and Sue Wallace

Based on their new book, Sue and Peter share their Questing to Albion’s magical, natural sacred places. It was to such Dreamtime places that early hunter-gatherers and shamans came to contact the Earth Spirit. They look at Albion’s myths and how people were once deeply connected to Nature. They make a passionate plea to visit ancient natural places; their message is a timely rallying cry at this pivotal time of change.

EVENING GATHERING: 7.30 - 9.30pm:

A magical evening of story and song, featuring storytelling with Andreas Kornevall and songs from the Heart with Susan Raven and Andrew Clark.

TICKETS: The evening is included as part of the conference OR evening only tickets on the door are £7.00 or £5.00 concessions.

SUNDAY 24th NOVEMBER

MORNING PROGRAMME: 10am - 1pm

“Communicating and Co-Creating with the Elemental Kingdom” - Susan Raven

Susan will be exploring the supersensible substance and dynamics of the elemental kingdom, looking at ways we can work in co-creative partnership with the nature spirits and elementals of our area. The nature spirits, as emissaries of higher spiritual beings, wish to be of great assistance. It is time to mend the lines of communication and to relearn a living world wisdom from them at this critical time in our evolution.

“Walking Between the Worlds” - Andreas Kornevall

Andreas will take us on a journey of discovery into the mythic imagination, asking what is a myth? How do the old stories and legends still live in us and our landscape and how can we find there the "Lost Gods and Goddesses of Britain." Andreas will demonstrate how myth reveals to us the current predicaments our landscape is in, facing climate change and species extinction and what can be done.

AFTERNOON PROGRAMME: 2.15 - 5pm

A choice of afternoon activities as two groups who will then join each other as a whole to conclude together:

• Making a Mandala - Sarah Dawkins and Andrew Clark

With sacred dance and song from the heart. This allows us to connect with the flow of Universal Love and give to and receive from the land with an open heart. In this way we can play our part in the myth of Rescuing the Heart.

• Communicating with Nature Spirits - Susan Raven

When we walk the land with an open heart that says, 'My true self seeks your true self!', we become visible to a great choir of nature beings who have a communicable intelligence and a potential gift of wisdom to share.

Closing Circle: We will complete our weekend together in song and ceremony.

SPEAKERS

Peter and Sarah Dawkins co-direct the Zoence Academy & Mystery School and are founder members of the Gatekeeper Trust. Peter is a philosopher, author, lecturer, visionary, geomancer and a Baconian and Shakespearean scholar. Sarah organises pilgrimages and workshops within the Zoence Academy. One of Sarah's special interests and expertise is Paneurhythmy, a form of dance-yoga, and the wisdom behind it. www.zoence.co.uk

Angela Shaw (MA Art & Environment Falmouth) is an artist who works in collaboration with nature and subtle energies, connecting people to place through community and collaborative projects. These have included a 12 mile light sculpture in the land around St Michael's Mount in Cornwall and a collective exhibition in Guildford Cathedral. www.angelashaw.org

Isabelle Kingston is an internationally known Spiritual Teacher, Medium and Healer. Much of her life's work has involved using her abilities to connect into the subconsciousness and life force on the planet and into landscapes. As a native of Wiltshire, she works quietly with the Sacred Sites, known and unknown. Combining her psychic powers and archaeological knowledge, she has taught many to experience, connect and heal environments at a deep and spiritual level.

Peter Knight and Sue Wallace run Stone Seeker tours together. Peter is well known for his inspirational dowsing and shamanic workshops, lectures and field trips. He founded the annual Convention of Archaeology and Earth Mysteries. Sue brings a lifetime of experience of dowsing, drumming, and chanting. She has a deep relationship with the Earth, connecting intuitively, often through chant and song. www.stoneseeker.net

Susan Raven is a long time student of Anthroposophy and has worked with the methods and exercises prescribed by Rudolf Steiner for seeing into the super-sensible realms. She is the author of the popular book Nature Spirits: The Remembrance: A guide to the Elemental Kingdom. Susan presents workshops which offer a practical methodology for communicating with the realm of Nature Spirits and Elementals. Susan is also a singer-songwriter whose songs have featured on the BBC and local radio. www.susanraven.com

Andreas Kornevall is a storyteller, writer, mythographer and ecologist. He has done live storytelling for BBC radio and worked with the archaeological society Sussex Past to revive the ancient Pagan Anglo-Saxon Creation Myth. He works with the National Trust in restoring the landscape of the South Downs, as well as delivering lectures on Norse myth in universities across the UK. He directs the Earth Restoration Service Charity and is the co-founder of the Life Cairn – a memorial for human caused extinctions. www.andreaskornevall.com

Andrew Clark worked for nearly 30 years as a psychiatrist and psychotherapist in the NHS before retiring in 2017. Since 1990, he has participated in many pilgrimages and retreats led by Peter and Sarah Dawkins, and has also co-led pilgrimages with the Gatekeeper Trust. He has sung in choirs for many years and feels increasingly called to use heart-centred singing and sounding as a way to develop our heart consciousness.

Gatekeeper Trust is an educational charity (Reg. no. 326416), whose objectives include the 'study of landscape temples, holy places, earth structures and their layout'. The Trust aims to work with the planet in a mutually healing way, in tune with the landscape and honouring the sacred in both people and places. The Trust shares this approach through its Friendship scheme, a network of contacts, publications and an annual programme of sacred journeys, workshops and other events.
